If you wish to apply for a place for your child at St Mary's Roman Catholic Primary School (for entry into Reception in September 2022) please provide the following information. This is necessary to allow each applicant to be placed in the correct category in accordance with our published admissions policy. Failure to provide complete information will make it impossible for us to recognise the correct category for your child, and may lead to their being placed in a lower category.

Please note that attendance at a nursery school does not guarantee a child a place at the same primary school.
